

Emma Jardine

"Eloquent, silver-toned violinist" (The Strad magazine), Emma Jardine has performed as recitalist and chamber musician across Europe, UK, Scandinavia, Asia and Australia.

Born in Australia, Emma has played for several years with the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande, and also as soloist with the Camerata Menuhin (Switzerland). She has been engaged as Guest Principal and also Guest Associate Principal Second Violin of the Sydney Symphony Orchestra and also performed with the Melbourne and West Australian Symphony Orchestras.

Her solo performances have been broadcast on ABC FM, 3MBS and 2MBS FM radio stations, as well as on Australian television. From 2004 to 2005, Emma was an Academy Musician at the Australian National Academy of Music and was selected as one of the "Best Concertos of 2004".

Emma also holds a Bachelor of Music Performance from the Victorian College of the Arts. She completed her Masters degree in 2011 at the Haute Ecole de Musique de Genève, Switzerland, in the class of Mihaela Martin. Previous teachers include Pierre Amoyal, Gyulla Stuller, Nelli Scholnikova, Igor Osim, Miwako Abe and Alice Waten.

Emma has been winner of numerous competitions and scholarships, including awards from the Australia Council, Ian Potter Foundation, Victorian College of the Arts, IMS Prussia Cove, Siena Accademia Musicale Chigiana and Salzburg Mozarteum.