

Parents' Charter

Meriden values the partnership that exists between the School and the home. Students whose parents support the values, ethos and policies of the School benefit from this support and are more likely to thrive at Meriden.

By the time a girl leaves Meriden at the end of Year 12, it is hoped that she will be a:

- Confident, articulate and responsible leader
- Aspiring and academic achiever
- Well-informed and critical thinker
- Well-rounded and resilient team-player
- Creative innovator and collaborative problem-solver
- Compassionate, healthy and optimistic global citizen
- Woman of integrity, appreciative of the Christian faith.

By enrolling their daughters at Meriden, parents are committing to developing a positive partnership with our School through their:

Commitment to education

- sending their daughters to School each school day unless the girls are unwell
- sending their daughters to School each day in complete school uniform
- working positively and openly with school staff, thereby fostering a spirit of goodwill, cooperation and support.

Thoughtful actions

- behaving ethically and thoughtfully when attending school functions
- displaying exemplary sportsmanship at all sporting functions
- supporting the discipline policy of the School and its code of conduct
- keeping the School informed of any relevant changes to the girls' personal circumstances involving contact details and medical issues.

Loyalty to the School

- representing the School positively in public forums, either formally or informally
- paying school fees in a timely manner
- contributing, where possible, to the school community.
