

Role Description

Teacher – Legal Studies

Reports to: Head of Department – History

Status: Permanent full-time

Overview

We are looking to appoint a qualified, experienced, and passionate teacher of Legal Studies to join our History department. The successful applicant will possess a deep understanding of content, current syllabus documents and pedagogical strategies. They will be driven by a passion for humanities and a love for the subject.

Professional Responsibilities

The successful applicant will:

- Be experienced and have a passion for teaching Stage 6 Legal Studies
- Create and maintain an effective and safe learning environment for students
- An understanding of girls' education, especially the teaching of talented students
- Demonstrate effective and contemporary teaching practice which fosters student engagement and facilitates learning within the area of Legal Studies and junior History
- Have appropriate tertiary qualifications and NESA accreditation
- Work independently and collaboratively with other teachers
- The ability to teach junior History (or another discipline) is highly desirable.

Essential Attributes:

- Well qualified in the discipline
- Up-to-date with 21st century pedagogy
- Comfortable with integrating technology into the classroom.

Personal Attributes and Skills:

- Displays excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and a high level of collaborative practice
- Positively contributes to and works as an effective team member
- Possesses a broad and deep understanding of current educational issues, curriculum development, and pedagogical theory
- Represents the School proudly and appropriately, with high standards of speech and attire
- Displays clear and effective written and oral communication skills
- Demonstrates proficient ICT skills and expertise
- A willingness to embrace and enhance the Christian ethos and practice of Meriden, as an independent Anglican School for girls
- Loyal to the Principal and publicly supportive of her decisions.