

Term 3 Junior School Touch Football report

The Junior School girls thoroughly enjoyed participating in the IPSHA Saturday Sport Competition in Term 3. They trained with passion and commitment in the lead-up to Saturday games each week and showed significant improvement in their technical skills, strategy and teamwork throughout the term.

Thank you to the parents and coaches who have supported the girls each week. Students demonstrated a high degree of sportsmanship and fair play throughout the season and Meriden staff and coaches were proud of their achievements.
