

Food Technology students prepare staff morning tea

Towards the end of Term 2, Senior School staff were treated to a morning tea prepared by the Year 10 Food Technology students.

Year 10 students are currently learning about food service and catering. The girls were able to apply their learning by planning and preparing sweet and savoury dishes for staff morning tea. Students were overjoyed by the positive praise from the staff for the successful event. Well done, girls!

Mrs Michelle Harmont

Design and Creative Arts Teacher

Nectra Ramkumaran and Reshmi Ramana

Rice paper rolls

Angel Chiu

Sliders, quiches, pastries, meringues and more!