An evening of musical mastery - Amadeus Recital #1

Congratulations to all the girls who performed at the first Amadeus Recital of the year. It was wonderful to see so many students, family, friends and the local community, including the residents at Marion Court. All the performances were of an outstanding level of technique and musicality.

Performances were given by Kaitlyn Blair, Year 12, Alice Deng, Year 9, Emma Rose Koeswandy, Year 10, Jenny Li, Year 8, Catherine Meng, Year 8, Sunae Park, Year 12, Symphony Shi, Year 10, and Kaitlyn Xi and Alice Wu, Year 8. The girls performed a variety of works including pieces by Boccherini, Rachmaninoff, Shostakovich, and Sarasate.

Other Amadeus news

Year 11 student, Cynthia Bui, will participate in an organ masterclass with renowned organist Anna Lapwood. Cynthia was selected from organists all over Australia to attend this session at the Sydney Opera House.

Anna Lapwood is the official organist of the Royal Albert Hall and a prominent advocate for bringing organ music to new audiences. Whilst Anna is in Sydney, she will be making her debut in two recitals on the Sydney Opera House's grand organ.

Tickets for the masterclass and other organ concerts featuring Anna Lapwood can be found on the Sydney Opera House website.
